ETIQUETTE.

A gentleman always rises from his chair when a lady enters or leaves the room.

On a man's visiting card only titles that indicate a rank or profession for life should be used.

At a ball one may not refuse a certain dance to one gentleman and then dance it with another.

A letter to a married woman is directed with her husband's name or initials and her own—as, Mrs. Thomas R. Gibbs or Mrs. T. R. Gibbs.

To be polite to one we dislike is not necessarily being insincere. Politeness is not so much a manifestation toward others as an indication of what we are ourselves. We owe it to ourselves to be well bred.

On formal occasions no napkin rings appear on the table and the napkin is used but the once. At the home dinner the napkin, if not too soiled, should be placed in the ring to be used again at breakfast or luncheon.

"Freedom to Worship God."

One of the conditions which promote peace between the states of the United States is that wherever any citizen may be he is free to enjoy "whatever form of religion he prefers. He may be a Christian, Mohammedan or pagan, as he pleases, only he must preserve the peace and live a decent life. World peace will be unspeakably promoted if there prevails such a system of world law that when a man goes into any part of the world he will be free to worship God after any form he prefers. Other liberties now not known in all countries may be expected in the growing toleration and homogeneity of the world.—R. L. Bridgman in Atlantic.

A Fair Opportunity.

Tasso, being told that he had a fair opportunity of taking advantage of a very bitter enemy, replied: "I do not plunder him, but I wish to honor him or his will."

TWO SAD DEATHS.

Geo. Cowles Sleet, the son of the late Geo. Sleet who for years was the proprietor of the hotel at this place, died in the city of Norfolk Sunday morning. Mr. Sleet had recently been operated upon for appendicitis and was attacked with pneumonia and succumbed to a complication of these troubles. He was well and favorably known here where he spent his boyhood days and where he lived for some years after coming to manhood's estate. His body was brought to Mathews on Monday and interred at Kingston cemetery. Mr. Sleet leaves a mother, two brothers, a sister and a wife.

The very sudden death of Mrs. Joseph J. Freeman at her home on North River Monday morning came as a severe shock to the entire community. Mrs. Freeman was reclining upon her sofa when suddenly the icy hand of Death was laid upon her, and in its grasp she passed into the great unknown. She leaves a husband and six children to mourn her loss.

WOMEN'S KIDNEYS.

Women are more often afflicted with kidney disorders than men, but attribute the symptoms to diseases peculiar to their sex, while in reality the kidneys are deranged. Nervousness, headache, puffy or dark circles under the eyes, pain in the back, are signs of kidney trouble that must not be ignored, or a serious malady will result. Foley's Kidney Cure has restored the health of thousands of weak, broken-down women. It stops irregularities and strengthens the urinary organs. It purifies the blood and benefits the whole system. For sale by S. E. Richardson, Mathews, and Miller & Rilie, Woods X Roads, Va.

Teste—Sands Smith Clerk.

CURED HEMORRHAGES OF THE LUNGS.

"Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake, of Wood, Ind. "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar, and my lungs are now as solid as a bullet. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble." Foley's Honey and Tar stops the cough and heals the lungs, and prevents serious results from a cold. Refuse substitutes. For sale by S. E. Richardson, Mathews, and Miller & Rilie, Woods X Roads, Va.
